Another View Taken of Gov. Flower's Action.

Chairman Larocque, of the LXX.'s ub-Committee, which is endeavoring to have Gov. Flower instruct the Attoreral to conduct the election cases ney-General to conduct the conduct and push the charges against delinquent city officials in New York, said this expected charges brought against Dis-trict-Attorney Fellows by Good Gov-erament men would prevent their plans being carried out.

"In fact," said Mr. Larocyne, "it seems to me that since Col. Fellows must now devote considerable of his time to defending himself, there is adnal reason why these important should be conducted by "The cases should be brought before the December Grand Jury, but as Mr. Fellows has only eight days to prepare his own defense before the Governor and must after that time devote a great it deal of his time to defending himself, it would be difficult for him to do the work required in presenting the cases to the Grand Jury.

"Gov. Flower will no doubt take these facts into consideration, and as Mr. Fellows has united with us in a request to have the Attorney-General conduct the cases I have no doubt that the Governor mill grant our request."

Among lawyers the opinion is current that the applicants for the removal of Fellows from office had presented a weak as case in their charges, and that nothing will come of them. Friends of the Good Government Club men insist, however, in the action was timely and proper.

"Gov. Flower," said one of them to-day, "wants to do something as he is expected to redeem himself in the histimation of the solid men of New York. He has no motive for currying favor my longer with Tammany, and may marsfore, if removes Fellows, appoint it some reform Democrat as his successor. "On the other hand, if the application for the removal of Fellows had been deaved until Morton was installed, he night, in case the demand was granted, co ave appointed as a successor some lawer of Platt's naming, who would exertise no more vigor than Fellows has one in the prosecution of criminals."

Mr. Besman and Mr. Jerome refused his morning to discuss the movement o remove Fellows.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—"It is a great mistake to suppose that Rubinstein was irritable and bad-tempered." said Miss MacArthur to "The World" correspondent to-day. "He was remarkably patient with students, though intolerant of amateurs. Sometimes he would be provoked into a fit of rage, but it quickly passed away and he never cherished malice."

Miss MacArthur, an American girl now living in Paris, was a pupil of Rubinstein four years, is the author of a biography of him, and writes musical articles under the pen name of "Alexander MacArthur."

The staid old Bushwick Democratic Club, of Brooklyn, has not yet recovered from the shock given it by the wanton actions of some of its younger mem-bers election night, in insulting, through a picture, President Cleveland.

For years a fine $500 oil portrait of Grover Cleveland, presented by Brewer Philip Leibinger, has adorned the club house. The older members found cold comfort from the returns election night, and went home early, carrying their dis-appointment with them.

and went home early, carrying their disappointment with them.

The younger element, which remained, felt badly, too, and after numerous draughts of sorrow-eradicator, decided that Mr. Cleveland was primarily responsible for the terrific landsilde.

Instead of turning the President's picture to the wall, however, which might possibly have been forgiven, several members deliberately tore down the fine portrait, carried it into the cellar and stamped it to pieces, meanwhile shouting and executing a war-dance over the mangled chayas features.

Ex-President 8. S. Whitehouse, Chairman of the old Democratic General Committee, and other older members of the Club are particularly indignant over the outrage. Said Mr. Whitehouse to-day: "The men who are legally guilty will surely be expelled from our organization."

"New York." he says, "has now been purified by a flood of pure sentiment, and the stagnant pool of corruption, the miasmatic machinery and force of centralized power have been swept away. "I cannot speak too highly of the composition of the Committee which employed me as its counsel. Though appointed by a Republican Senate and drawing a majority of its members from that body, these men have acted throughout the investigation like non-partisans, and they have upheld the counsel in every move that has promised to solve the problem that confronted us. It mattered not whether a Republican or Democrat was hurt. The Committee was after the truth, and the truth was obtained.

In reference to the resumption of the Lexow Committee hearings a week from next Monday, he said:

"There are still many points to investigate, and a great deal of rounding up—finishing off, as it were.

"Go up higher? I cannot say, We will try to finish the work by Jan. I. Then I shall be obliged to leave the Committee to assume the duties of my office. The Committee will probably report to the Legislature soon after the session begins, on Jan. 15, and they may then ask for an extension. As to that I cannot say,"
